

Virtual Talk with author Susan Morrison

The definitive, years in-the making biography of Lorne Michaels

Lorne: The Man Who Invented Saturday Night Live is the years-in-the-making biography of Lorne Michaels by The New Yorker editor Susan Morrison.

Through unprecedented access to Michaels and hundreds of interviews with him, his cast members, friends, and family, Morrison reveals the man behind the show—his obsessions, his genius, and the legacy that has impacted generations of comedians and writers, from John Belushi to Tina Fey to Chris Rock.
