

What Do Older Patrons Need?:

Understanding Creative Wellbeing in Later Life

Categories: Advocacy & Programming

People over the age of sixty-five now outnumber those under the age of five for the first time in human history. Nevertheless, more older adults suffer from feelings of loneliness, boredom, and helplessness. However, older adults who maintain or adopt an art or music making practice often experience greater satisfaction in their lives.

In this interactive and informative program, attendees will learn:

- how the arts support the wellbeing of older adults
- how creative practices increases social engagement in later life
- how art and music making supports intergenerational bonds
- how creative endeavors provide elders with a sense of purpose

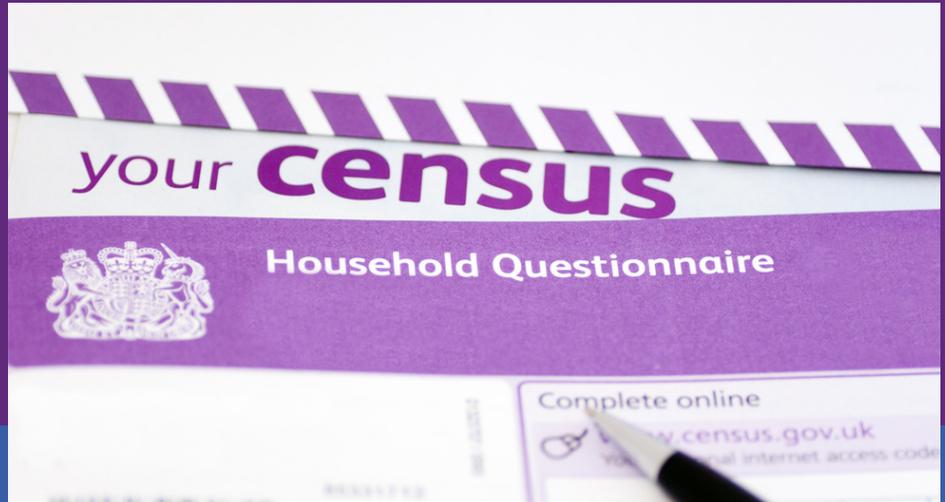

Your Knowledge Expert

Date November 30, 2022

Time 2.00 PM - 3.00 PM EST

Jon
Kay

Frustrated in Your Genealogy Search? Try the Census

Category: Genealogy

Have you dabbled in census research for genealogy? Would you like to learn how to read between the census lines? Did you know that you can gain more information than can be found by database searching alone?

In this program you will discover tools that will:

- Match census records to geographic areas
- Help you browse records that have not been indexed
- Teach you what samples are and what schedules available for browsing or searching.
- Provide resources for further study

Your Knowledge Expert

Date December 7, 2022

Time 2.00 PM - 3.00 PM EST

Maggie
Rose

A Shark & Unicorn Walk into a Library:

Tips & Tricks to Boost Staff Morale

Categories: Leadership & Workplace Culture

This playful interactive session will give you a guide on understanding the importance of morale and why it's essential in the workplace. Alli and Kim will help you identify low morale and provide practices and activities to boost morale through positivity. You will leave with guidance on how to maintain morale long-term.

This interactive session will:

- Identify low morale and how it impacts staff/coworkers
- Provide morale and behavior boosting activities using fun, directed tasks, and opportunities for teamwork and development
- Identify ways to maintain morale long term

Your Knowledge Experts

Date December 14, 2022

Time 2.00 PM - 3.00 PM EST

Kim Bryant Welch

Alli Parker