America at 250: A major revisionist history of the Lewis &
Clark Expedition

This Vast Enterprise offers a bold and novel take on the expedition: a gripping narrative that draws on lost documents, stunning analysis, and Native perspectives.

In 1806, when Meriwether Lewis and William Clark return from their years-long journey - having led the Corps of Discovery through an eight thousand mile journey - they bring an incredible tale starring themselves as courageous explorers, skilled survivalists, underrated scientists, and peaceful ambassadors.
