

Young Authors' Festival 2014

A Celebration of Writing for Students in 3rd - 5th Grades, their Parents, and Teachers

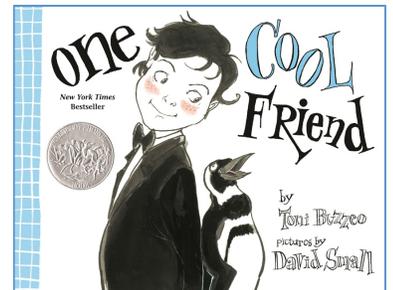

- Hear author Toni Buzzeo talk about the process of writing children's books, including her 2013 Caldecott Honor Book, One Cool Friend.
- Students will attend breakout sessions focused on writing, while adults learn tips for supporting children's writing development.
- A selection of Toni's books will be available for sale. Toni will sign books at the end of the festival.
- 3rd – 5th graders can submit entries to the festival's writing contest. Details can be found on the event's website: <http://library.umd.umich.edu/events/YAF/>
- The festival is free and open to the public. Registration begins October 13, 2014 at the website: <http://library.umd.umich.edu/events/YAF/>

University of Michigan-Dearborn
Mardigian Library
November 22, 2014
9 a.m. - 12 noon

Meet Toni Buzzeo, author of the 2013
Caldecott Honor book,
One Cool Friend

Toni Buzzeo

Art © 2012 by David Small