

Virtual Seed Saving Panel

Thursday, April 14
6pm-7pm

Discuss seed saving practices with MSU educator, Abbey Palmer and seed saving expert Ray Bush. Learn how you can check out seeds and help the Alpena Seed Library grow!

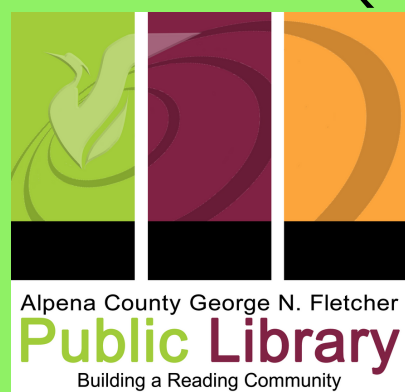

Abbey Palmer is a Community Food Systems Educator. She works with schools and farms throughout the Upper Peninsula.

Ray Bush works with organizations to further seed saving with demonstrations, workshops, and presentations.

Attend in person at the Library, follow the link below or scan the QR code to attend virtually.
