Workshop Sessions

9:30–10:30 am
Weeding Smart

Presented by
Holly Hibner and Mary Kelly
Plymouth District Library

"Awful Library Books" bloggers Holly Hibner and Mary Kelly will discuss how to make a success of your weeding project. Learn how to get staff and patrons on board, be clear with your weeding plan and set a pace that allows for careful decision making. You'll also learn how to dispose of weeded materials properly and respectfully.

10:45–11:45 am
How Patron Bashing
Is Killing Our Spirit

Presented by
Samantha Minniss
Grand Valley State University

Is patron bashing a problem? Are there any therapeutic benefits to letting off steam? Samantha Minniss will discuss this common practice, and explain how avoiding patron bashing not only leads to better service for library users, but a happier work life for library professionals.

12:00–1:00pm
What Libraries Can Learn From Independent Booksellers

Presented by
Mike and Hilary Gustafson
Literati Bookstore

Learn how the owners of Literati bookstore have used book recommendations, local connections, social media, author and music events—and an old typewriter—to make Literati a popular destination in downtown Ann Arbor.
