The UPRLC Librarian of the Year Award honors a librarian who has gone above and beyond for the library community and/or the organization. Any employee of a UPRLC Member Library is eligible for this award.

Applicants may nominate themselves or another UPRLC member who they feel is deserving of this honor. This award will be voted on by the Awards Committee; no committee members are eligible. A Master's Degree is not required to win this award; involvement with UPRLC is a consideration.

Please complete this form and the essay statement, and return along with at least two letters of support to the Chair of the UPRLC Awards Committee Jessica Luther, on or before:

August 29, 2025
