The UPRLC Program of the Year Award honors an innovative or impactful program for the public, hosted at a member organization, in the previous year (August 2024-August 2025).

Applicants may nominate their own program or another UPRLC member library's program that they feel is deserving of this honor. This award will be voted on by the Awards Committee; committee members affiliated with nominated programs will abstain during selection. All member library programs are eligible for nomination.

Please complete this form and the essay statement, and return. Applications must be submitted to the Chair of the UPRLC Awards Committee, Jessica Luther, on or before:

August 29, 2025
