

Join us for a Mural Ribbon Cutting!

Thursday, September 29
10:30am

In front of the East Lansing Public Library
(if raining, inside the Meeting Room)

This vibrant mural by Dustin Hunt of Muralmatics delves into some of East Lansing's civil rights history. The ribbon cutting ceremony will include short remarks, and community members can learn more about the history and detail that went into the mural. Light refreshments will be served.

Photo Credit: @mcshanephotography

East Lansing Public Library