

Let's Collaborate:

Teen-Adult Partnerships to Enhance Youth Leadership

Categories: Young Adult
& Community Engagement

This webinar will explore how public libraries can leverage teen internships and volunteer programs to enhance leadership skills, increase civic engagement, and provide meaningful career exploration opportunities for youth. In addition, this could create library ambassadors, lead to enhanced services, and creative initiatives.

Attendees will:

- Learn about the benefits of creating internship programs and volunteer opportunities for teens within public libraries
- Understand how to design and implement programs that focus on developing leadership, communication, and problem-solving skills in teens
- Explore strategies for recruiting and retaining teen volunteers
- Discover best practices for mentoring and supporting teens in these roles
- Gain insights from successful case studies

Your Knowledge Experts

Date January 8, 2025

Time 2.00 PM - 3.00 PM EST

Tiffany
Duck

David
Duck

Foundations of Comics Librarianship

Categories: Reader's Advisory & Collection Development

The world of graphic literature can be overwhelming. Fortunately, Olivia Radbill can help!

This interactive and informative program will dive into the history of comics in libraries, best practices for collection development, and how library workers can better interact with comics and graphic novels in their libraries.

Who will Benefit from this Program:

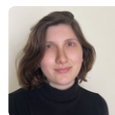

- All Staff that Interacts with Patrons
- All Circulation Staff Members
- Reader's Advisory Staff

This program is part of PCI's collaborative learning project with California Libraries. (CALL)

Your Knowledge Expert

Date January 15, 2025

Time 2.00 PM - 3.00 PM EST

Olivia
Radbill

Crisis Management in Libraries:

Preparedness and Response

Categories: Crisis Management, Leadership, & Management

Libraries are not immune to crises, whether they involve security threats, natural disasters, or public health emergencies. This webinar provides essential strategies to prepare library staff for effectively managing various crises, ensuring the safety and well-being of both patrons and employees.

Attendees will learn how to:

- Develop and implement a crisis management plan.
- Communicate effectively during emergencies.
- Maintain safety and security during various crisis scenarios.

Who will benefit from this program:

- Library Directors and Managers
- Safety and Security Teams
- All Library Staff

Your Knowledge Expert

Date January 22, 2025

Time 2.00 PM - 3.00 PM EST

Analia Fiorio

Understanding and Managing Burnout in Libraries

Categories: Wellness,
Leadership/Management,
& Workplace Culture

Burnout among library staff is an increasing concern, impacting both personal well-being and workplace productivity. This session is designed to address the importance of recognizing the signs of burnout, fostering open communication, and implementing strategies for sustainable management. You will learn strategies for managing, enhancing awareness, and actionable ways to create more supportive and sustainable library workplaces.

From this session, you will gain ways to:

- Recognize early signs of burnout
- Foster empathy and support
- Build a strategy for preventing and managing burnout
- Develop a resilient team

Your Knowledge Expert

Date January 29, 2025

Time 2.00 PM - 3.00 PM EST

Dr. Stevie
M. Munz